MyddeltonParker Builders Announces Boar's Head as Premier Sponsor for Extreme Makeover: Home Edition Leon County

Tallahassee, Fla. – MyddeltonParker Builders today announces Boar's Head as the Premier Sponsor in the Extreme Makeover: Home Edition Leon County build project.

The Boar's Head Company is committed to providing the highest quality products. In the past, they have partnered with The American Heart Association to offer 28 heart-healthy products to consumers. Boar's Head distributorships are locally owned and strive to give back to their local communities.

“Boar's Head Tallahassee has been honored in the past to work with Susan G. Komen, Kids Inc., local little league teams, and local schools, such as North Florida Christian School. Courtney and I believe that to improve the lives of our community is in line with the mission of Boar's Head. We are honored to be asked by MyddeltonParker Builders to be a partner in this amazing project to build a house for a deserving Leon County family,” said Chad Clement, Boar's Head Tallahassee.

The support that Boar's Head is providing to MyddeltonParker Builders brings the team one step closer to providing a safe and healthy home for a Leon County Family.

“John and I thank Boar's Head for partnering with us on the Extreme Makeover: Home Edition Leon County. Their financial support will assist us with building a home for the family, and providing community outreach that will extend past the end of the project. It is the continued support of businesses and individuals that allows MyddeltonParker Builders to complete this project,” said Jake Myddelton, co-owner of MyddeltonParker Builders.
